

Diana Jordanova

Dr. Prof.

Internationally recognized researcher in the field of environmental and rock magnetism (h-index 18 in SCOPUS (2018) data base; over 50 publications in peer-reviewed journals). She is successful Marie-Curie fellow (MC Individual Fellowship at Univ. Tuebingen, Germany, 2000-2002). The main research interests are related to paleo-environmental reconstructions based on magnetism of loess-paleosolsediments; Quaternary climate; magnetometry applied to mapping/ monitoring of anthropogenic pollution of soils, sediments and urban dust; soil magnetism.
